

Name:

Date:.....

This fact file about Spain has lots of errors. Read it through, edit it and improve it so that it is correct. For example, you may want to add some interesting adjectives and connectives to improve the text.

Spain is part of Europe. It takes 2.5 hours to fly there from the UK.

The population is 47.7 million people. The capital city is Madrid with 3.3 million people.

Madrid is the largest city.

Spain was in Group D at Euro 2016 and have a good team. Their kit is Red shirts and blue shorts and Red socks. The two main football clubs are called Barcelona and Real Madrid. They have lots of supporters. Barcelona is also popular with tourists because of its _____ buildings. Barcelona and Real Madrid are the most popular football teams.

The Spanish people have their own royal family who live in the royal palace.

As the summers in the cities are hot many people go to the seaside or mountainous areas in the north of the country.

The longest river is called the Ebro which is 910km. The largest lake, Mar Menor, is also the largest salt lake in Europe. El Teide on the island of Tenerife is its highest mountain at 3,718m above sea level. The Balearic Islands, Mallorca, is its largest island.