

Toys from the Past

Children, throughout history, have always played with toys.

Look at the images of toys from the past and complete the table below.

Toy or game	What is it?	How might the toy or game have been used and who would have used it?	Is there a modern version still being used today? How is it different?

Choose one of the toys or games from the table that is still used today.
Why do you think this toy or game is still played with today? Explain in detail how the toy or game has changed over time.
