

Year 3/4 Statutory Spelling Words Practice

natural, probably

Read the words below.

natural

probably

Underline the part or parts of the words that could make them tricky to spell.

Read each sentence and circle the words natural and probably.

Jenny was a natural athlete.

We will probably read our class book at school today.

I'll probably be an hour later than expected.

An earthquake is an example of a natural disaster.

Match the word to its meaning.

natural

meaning that something is very likely

probably

something found in nature, without anything done or made by people; a characteristic that you were born with

Write each word on the lines below.

natural

probably

Unscramble the words.

bblyproa _____

laanurt _____

Put the correct word into each sentence.

natural

probably

“You are a _____ at that,” said Mrs Dawes.

Gail is _____ not coming to the party.

We could _____ trust her with the secret.

There was a small _____ harbour in the town.

Leon would _____ not eat that flavour ice cream again.

Write your own sentence for each word.

CHALLENGE

natural _____

probably _____

Can you use an adjective to add description in your sentences?

