

Name: .....

Date:.....

1. Put a circle around the determiners in the sentence below.

My old dog licked the water from his bowl.

2. Rewrite the following sentence in the passive voice.

The miserable child kicked the ball.

.....

3. Underline the adverb in this sentence.

I like chocolates and my sister does too.

4. Add commas to mark the relative clause.

My dad who is forty-three years old likes to play tennis.

5. Add a semi-colon where needed.

Everybody loves it when the sun comes out we can go and play outside.

6. What is the name of the punctuation in the underlined word?

The explosion made an ear-splitting sound.

.....

7. Underline the subordinate clause.

Last night my dad whistled to my dog when we were across the fields.

8. Circle the modal verbs in the sentence below.

I might go to the park tonight, but then again I may do my homework instead.

9. Add apostrophes to the sentence below.

My dads favourite food is egg on toast but I cant stand it.

10. Add a colon where needed.

James loved two things in life football and cricket.

11. Rewrite the following sentence with the adverbial at the beginning, including correct punctuation.

I stayed up studying for my exam last night.

.....

Answers

1. My old dog licked the water from his bowl.
2. The ball was kicked by the miserable child.
3. I like chocolates and my sister does too.
4. My dad, who is forty-three years old, likes to play tennis.
5. Everybody loves it when the sun comes out; we can go and play outside.
6. Hyphen
7. Last night my dad whistled to my dog when we were across the fields.
8. I might go to the park tonight, but then again I may do my homework instead.
9. My dad's favourite food is egg on toast but I can't stand it.
10. James loved two things in life: football and cricket.
11. Last night, I stayed up studying for my exam.