

Gangster Granny

David Walliams

Book Review

What happens in the story?

- Mike and Linda every Friday take their son Ben to granny's house.
- Ben's parents every Friday go to see a dancing show named "strictly stars dancing".
- Ben he hates having to stay with his granny because she always feeds him cabbage soup, cabbage chocolate and constantly playing scrabble.
- Ben's parents would love him to be a ballet dancer, but his passion is plumbing and is a long term subscriber to plumbing weekly.
- After Gangsta granny secret is uncovered being a jewel thief, they decide to collaborate and steal the crown jewels.
- Ben and granny are caught by the police, granny points out they do not have the Crown Jewels. Shortly after granny passes away and her jewellery is given to charity.

Who are some of the characters?

- Ben hates spending times with his granny.
- He loves plumbing.
- Doesn't like dancing.

- Likes anything to do with cabbages.
- Used to be a jewel thief.
- unfortunately she has an underlying health condition.

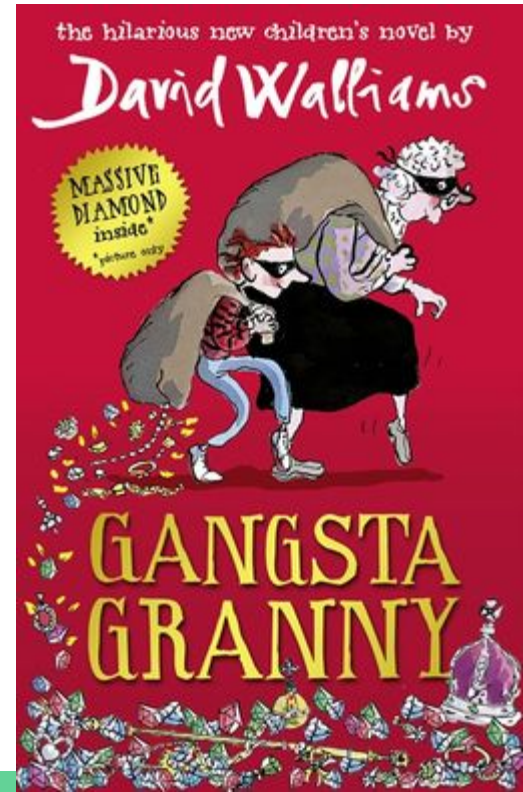

Why do you like this book?

I like the book because one of the main characters granny was hiding a secret of a being a jewel theft, and Ben did not know that granny was jewel theft until later in the story.

Who would you recommend this gangster granny for.

Is Year 6 and year 5.

Has the author written any other books?

The author is David Walliams and he has written Ratburger and Mr Stink and Bad Dad and many more

